Happy families aren't born...They're made one day at a time!

Parenting is the most difficult job one can have. Unlike appliances, children do not come with an owner's manual that tells a parent how to deal with behaviors, moods and daily stressors.

Did you ever wonder if there's a better way to handle your daily parenting problems? You can become more successful at parenting with Active Parenting Now. The class provides approaches to parenting that will help you with your children.

Class Topics

- ⌘ The Active Parent- Identifying parenting styles and improving the relationship between parents and children.
- ⌘ Winning Cooperation- Problem solving skills, communication and cooperation.
- ⌘ Responsibility and Discipline- Responsibility and effective discipline with logical consequences.
- ⌘ Understanding and Redirection- Understanding the child's behavior and using effective redirection.
- ⌘ Building Courage, Character & Self Esteem- Ways to encourage children by building self esteem yet providing appropriate consequences.
- ⌘ The Active Family Now- Working together as a family and understanding parents influence on children.

Classes are held over various weeks and are held at The Child Protection Center. Upon completion of the sessions, a certificate of completion will be given.
