

The Child Protection Center of Ross County

Presents

Kid's Day 2015

Saturday, March 28, 2015

Held this year at Allen Elementary School, located at 174 Plyleys Lane.

The Child Protection Center is a child advocacy center. We provide free services for abused children, a supervised visitation program, parent education, and Body Safety classes. A professional staff provides these services in a child-friendly atmosphere. The Child Protection Center is a non-profit organization. For more information about the center, please visit our website at www.thechildprotectioncenter.org. All donations are appreciated and are tax-deductible. Thank you

While your children are in classes, stop by the Parents Café between 9:30 and 11:30. Enjoy light refreshments while you learn about the joys and challenges of parenting your children. Stephanie Winegardner of Winegardner Chiropractic at 10:00 & Julie Oates of The Child Protection Center at 10:30 will discuss parenting choices and disorders in children. Dr. Stephanie Winegardner will discuss topics which will include family nutrition, fitness, health and wellness and positive discipline. And don't forget about our great raffle packages!
